

CHORAL GROUP PROFILE

CHOPIN SINGING SOCIETY

Description

Founded in 1899 by Polish Immigrant Boleslaus Michalski, the Chopin Singing Society is a source of cultural life and tradition for Poles and non-Poles alike. The group's mission is to promote Polish music and song, singing in Polish and English. The group has traveled nationally and internationally and has won various awards.

Director Thomas Witakowski

Artistic Director, Associate Professor at Buffalo State College, holds a Doctorate in choral conducting from Indiana State University. Mr. Witakowski is also Director of Music for the Amherst Chamber Ensembles

Rehearsal Time and Location

Tuesdays, 7:00 p.m.
Potts Banquet Hall
41 South Rossler Avenue
Cheektowga, NY 14206

Annual Events

Annual celebration of Frederick Chopin's birthday, choral concert celebration of the Easter and Christmas holidays, annual members' picnic and various other community concerts by invitation

Audition Information

Informal conversation with director and in section singing with peers