

CHORAL GROUP PROFILE

THE LUTHERAN CHORALE

Description

Organized in 1987, the Chorale has continued to become more ecumenical (open to all interested singers) as the years go by. It includes sacred pieces (large and small) along with some secular selections in each concert. Over the years, the Chorale has accepted invitations from churches, organizations, & other singing groups, etc. to take its music to various parts of the Niagara Frontier community to enjoy. See our website for more information (click on name above).

Director Julia Cordani

Julia is a 2021 B.A. and Master's graduate of The University at Buffalo majoring in voice performance. She currently sings with Harmonia Chamber Singers, St. Paul's Episcopal Cathedral Choir, Inviolata Music, Sotto Voce Vocal Collective and Buffalo Women's Chorus. She is a private voice instructor and held positions as choir and teaching assistant with the UB Music Department

Rehearsal Time and Location

7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. Tuesdays
St. Luke Lutheran Church
Union and Maryvale
Cheektowaga

Annual Events

The Chorale usually presents a concert at Christmas and then in April/May.

Audition Information

No audition required