

CHORAL GROUP PROFILE

COMMUNITY MUSIC SCHOOL OF BUFFALO

Description

Now entering its 99th year, Community Music School of Buffalo offers individual lessons, group classes, performance ensembles, and music therapy throughout the WNY community. Financial assistance is available for all programs. We offer free programs, including our CMBS Community Chorus (founded in 2018) and a free Kid's Jazz Program.

Director Paul Waara

Paul has been active solo and choral singer in the Buffalo area for a number of years. He was the music director for Opera-Lytes from 2010-2015. He currently is the Director of Operations and Community Music School of Buffalo, where he also serves as a member of the Voice Faculty. Paul also directs the CMS Community Chorus, a free non-auditioned chorus. Paul also is a cantor and choir director at St. John Vianney Church. He sings with Vocalis Chamber Choir.

Rehearsal Time and Location

Tuesday evenings at 7:00 p.m.
Community Music School
217 East Delavan Avenue
Buffalo, NY 14208

Annual Events

The CMS Community Chorus sings a wide variety of music, including classical choral music, pop, jazz, Broadway and more. The ensemble is a free, non-auditioned chorus, and meets weekly from October through June. The group presents 2 concerts per year.

Audition Information

The CMS Community Chorus is a free, non-auditioned group. Anyone interested in joining us should contact Community Music School at 884.4887, or info@cms-buffalo.org for information.