

CHORAL GROUP PROFILE

AMERICAN GUILD OF ORGANISTS

Description

Founded in 1919, the Buffalo Chapter of the American Guild of Organists is part of a nationwide organization comprised of about 20,000 organists. The Buffalo Chapter AGO hosts several events throughout the year, as well as publishing job postings, offering continue education and certificates, sponsoring student competitions and maintaining libraries of organ and choral music. Members may borrow choral music from the Reid Jerome Library housed at North Presbyterian Church, 300 North Forest Road, Williamsville.

Officers

Garret Martin, Dean

Paul Cena, SubDean

Officers of the Guild serve for two-year terms.

Annual Events

Opening service and installation of officers, organ recitals, annual meeting, and occasional collaborative choral events.

Contact Information

Buffalo Chapter, American Guild of Organists

\(buffalogo.org\)